Wine Features

Los Monteros Cava Brut
Maybe you’ve never really been that into sparkling wines before. That’s about to change. This luscious Cava has the most inviting aroma of savory herbs and lemon; not parsley and sage but definitely some rosemary and thyme. A palette dominated by big green apples is balanced by bubble-enhanced acids to keep you going back again and again.

Jean-Marc Brocard Chablis Sainte Claire
This one really makes me wish we had a raw bar. The nose is classic Chablis gunflint. The palate opens to a rounder slightly fruitier expression like bright yellow lemons chasing the liquor of freshly shucked oysters.

Cono Sur Bicicleta Carmenere
Carmenere, the long lost grape of Bordeaux, thrives in Chile’s Central Valley. Black pepper, leather and oak greet the nose followed by strawberry, tart cherry and dark chocolate to round out the palate.

Fratelli Seghesio Barbera d’Alba
I know, I know we already have a Barbera on the list but it’s too perfect for this time of year. Cranberries practically jump out of the glass but then a woody earthiness lingers that makes you think of a fall walk in the woods.
