Wine Features

Four Vines “the Maverick” Pinot Noir

Left of Albuquerque and just a few miles north of Pismo Beach sits Edna Valley. The relatively cool maritime climate and rich volcanic soil grant this part of the Central Coast with California’s longest growing season. Ideal for Pinot Noir, the area is known for producing elegant Burgundian style wines however the Maverick is a little bolder. Its luscious and silky. Opening with bright aromas of raspberry and hibiscus and finishing with just a hint of cherry cola.

Secco–Bertani Original Vintage Edition

Casa Vinicola Bertani has been one of the most prominent and influential wine producers in the Veneto for over 150 years. Drawing inspiration from their archives, the Original Vintage Edition pays homage to the Veronese style of wine they crafted before the advent of Amarone and Ripasso. Think black tea, dark roast coffee, pipe tobacco and saffron.

Gran Clos Les Mines Priorat

Priorat owes its name to the priory of Carthusian monks that first cultivated the steep vineyards of this rugged and arid region of northeast Spain. For these vines the struggle is indeed real and results in wines of exceptional character and backbone. Les Mines is inky and violet in color with a silky texture. Dark red fruit flavors, spice and a faint minerality with a dry finish.
